

Looking After A Parent With Dementia Whilst

Raising Your Own Family Too?

A FREE 6 session therapeutic support group just for you

Many people caring for both an older relative and their own children don't think of themselves as a “carer” at all;

Just as a daughter, son, husband, or friend,
doing what needs to be done.

You are a Sandwich Carer

“Sandwiched between caring for an Adult often a parent whilst looking after your own children or young relatives at the same time”
